

Seeking Racial Justice

Part 1: Christians Listening

A Four-Week Film & Discussion Series

“Seeking Racial Justice, Part 1: Christians Listening” explores the roots of institutional racism in American society and the church, racial trauma, and Black Christian identity from the perspective of our responsibility as Christian brothers and sisters.

- ▶ Week 1: Systemic racism in the US: Historic Roots and Generational Trauma
- ▶ Week 2: Examining Racism in the American Church
- ▶ Week 3: Ancient African Christianity and Black Christian Identity
- ▶ Week 4: The Politics and Socio-Economics of Racism

When: Saturdays (June 27- July 25)

Where: On Zoom

Time: 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Contact: For more details or to sign up to participate in this series email: stjnewhaven@gmail.com

Organized by St John’s Episcopal Church, New Haven